A Hodgepodge of Literature

Written by: Carrie Hodge, Lincoln Academy, Arvada, CO

Length of Unit: 6 lessons, varying lengths

I. ABSTRACT
The students will have an opportunity to explore different kinds of literature that includes poetry, fiction stories, tall tales, and sayings and phrases. The students will develop an understanding of characters, sequence, visualization, and interpretation of literature thorough a variety of activities.

II. OVERVIEW
A. Concept Objectives
1. Students read and understand a variety of materials. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 1)
2. Students read and recognize literature as a expression of human experience. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 2)
3. Students apply complex thinking skills when reading, writing, speaking, listening, and viewing. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 7)

B. Content from the Core Knowledge Sequence
1. Language Arts: Poetry (p. 44)
   a. Smart (Shel Silverstein)
2. Language Arts: Fiction (p. 45)
   a. Beauty and the Beast
   b. Charlotte’s Web (E.B. White)
   c. The Magic Paintbrush (a Chinese folktale)
   d. Johnny Appleseed
3. Language Arts: Sayings and Phrases (p. 46)
   a. Cold Feet

C. Skill Objectives
1. The student will create a picture to represent the poem “Smart”.
2. The student will describe the similarities and differences between the Beauty and the Beast movie and Beauty and the Beast book.
3. The students will identify the setting of Charlotte’s Web.
4. The students will identify at least three characters from Charlotte’s Web.
5. The students will identify 1-2 adjectives for each character identified from Charlotte’s Web.
6. The students will illustrate the setting and characters identified from Charlotte’s Web.
7. The students will create a representation of one type of magic paintbrush.
8. The students will write two or more sentences to describe what the magic paintbrush will create and why.
9. The students will list 3 exaggerations from “Johnny Appleseed”.
10. The students will list 3 real aspects from “Johnny Appleseed”.
11. The students will define “Cold feet”
12. The student will write an example of “Cold feet” from prior experience.
III. BACKGROUND KNOWLEDGE

A. For Teachers

B. For Students
   1. Introduction to sayings and phrases (Kindergarten and 1st grade)
   2. Vocabulary: character (1st Grade)
   3. Johnny Appleseed (Kindergarten)

IV. RESOURCES

A. Where the Sidewalk Ends, by Shel Silverstein (Lesson One)
B. Beauty and the Beast, by Troll (Lesson Two)
C. Beauty and the Beast, movie (Lesson Two)
D. Charlotte’s Web, by E.B. White (Lesson Three)
E. Liang and the Magic Paintbrush, by Demi (Lesson Four)
F. Johnny Appleseed, by Steven Kellogg (Lesson Five)
G. What Your Second Grader Needs to Know, by (Lesson Six)

V. LESSONS

Lesson One: Seeing With Your Eyes Closed (30 minutes per poem)

A. Daily Objectives
   1. Concept Objective(s)
      a. Students read and understand a variety of materials. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 1)
      b. Students read and recognize literature as a expression of human experience. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 2)
   2. Lesson Content
      a. Poetry
         i. Smart (Shel Silverstein)
   3. Skill Objective(s)
      a. The student will create a picture to represent the poem studied.

B. Materials
   1. Where the Sidewalk Ends by Shel Silverstein
   2. Copy of the poem “Smart” for each student (Appendix A)
   3. Scissors for each student
   4. Glue stick for each student
   5. Markers, crayons, or colored pencils for each student
   6. Poetry books for students (optional)
   7. Pencils needed for each student if poetry books are not used
   8. White board marker

C. Key Vocabulary
   1. Stanza – a group of lines of verse forming a division of a poem
   2. Rhyme – similarity in the sounds of word endings

D. Procedures/Activities
   1. (Optional) Prior to this lesson, the teacher can have each student label and draw a picture to create a cover for a poetry book, laminate the cover and a blank sheet of construction paper for the back, and bind 16-20 blank pieces of white paper together for a book. These will be used each time the students are introduced to a new poem.

2. Read the poem “Smart” to the class from Where the Sidewalk Ends.
3. Pass out a copy of the poem to each student. (Appendix A)
4. Read the poem out loud together as a class.
5. Discuss the key vocabulary words as it relates to the poem. Ask the students how many stanzas does the poem have? (5) What sets of rhyming words do you see? (son-one, Lou-two, see-three, store-four, cheeks-speaks)
6. Have the students close their eyes. Tell them they are to create a picture of what is happening in the poem in their brain. Read the poem out loud to the students.
7. Have students open their eyes and tell the pictures they saw as you were reading the poem. List the pictures that the students give on the board.
8. Each student will cut out the poem and paste in the poetry book or use the poem just as it is. If you use the poem as it is, you may need to get a folder or bind all poems at some point.
9. Each student will need to draw one picture to represent the poem. The poem should be in the center with the picture drawn around it.
10. Have students talk about the picture they drew to represent the poem. (time permitting)

E. Assessment/Evaluation
1. The students will be evaluated by the discussion of pictures used for the poem to determine if the skill objectives have been met.

Lesson Two: It’s what is on the inside that counts! (30-45 minutes)

A. Daily Objectives
1. Concept Objective(s)
   a. Students read and understand a variety of materials. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 1)
   b. Students read and recognize literature as a expression of human experience. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 2)
   c. Students apply complex thinking skills when reading, writing, speaking, listening, and viewing. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 7)
2. Lesson Content
   a. Fiction
      i. Beauty and the Beast
3. Skill Objective(s)
   a. The students will describe the similarities and differences between the book Beauty and the Beast and the movie Beauty and the Beast.

B. Materials
1. Book students are familiar with such as Jack and the Beanstalk
2. Beauty and the Beast by Troll
3. Video of Beauty and the Beast
4. Listing of similarities and differences between Beauty and the Beast video and Beauty and the Beast (Appendix B)
5. 2 different colored white board markers
6. Venn diagram (Appendix C)
7. Rubric for Venn diagram (Appendix C1)
8. Pencils for each student will be needed for each lesson in this unit
C. Key Vocabulary
1. merchant – person who direct large scale trades
2. adjective – part of speech used to define something
3. setting – the background on which something is set (where and when)
4. Venn diagram – diagram to compare and contrast at least 2 things, consisting of at least 2 intersecting circles

D. Procedures/Activities
1. Pick a book or story that students have already such as Jack and the Beanstalk. Review with the students the characters, setting, and sequence of the story.
2. Show a movie version of Beauty and the Beast. If you watch the movie over several days, please wait to finish the lesson until the entire movie has been seen.
3. Introduce the vocabulary words – setting, adjective. Identify the setting from the movie. Have students give at least one adjective for at least 2 or more characters from the movie.
4. Take one colored marker and make a list on the board of the characters, events, setting, adjectives, etc. that took place in the movie.
5. Introduce the vocabulary word – merchant.
6. Read the book Beauty and the Beast by Troll. You may have a different version that you like to read in your classroom. You may use any version as long as it is different from the movie in at least 5 ways.
7. Take a different colored marker than used for the movie to make a list of the characters, events, setting, adjectives, etc. from the book on the board.
8. Discuss with students the vocabulary word Venn diagram. Do an example of students liking recess vs. math. Show students that you will fill in the middle for those students who like both recess and math but the parts that do not overlap for those students that only like one or the other.
9. Hand out the Venn diagram to the students. (Appendix C) Have a student read the directions at the top of the page. Ask the students to give an example for each area of the diagram.
10. The students will correctly complete a Venn diagram with characteristics from the movie and the book to show similarities and differences.

E. Assessment/Evaluation
1. The students will be assessed by correctly completing the Venn diagram. A Rubric is provided (Appendix C1).

Lesson Three: Defining Character (45-60 minutes) Daily Objectives

1. Concept Objective(s)
   a. Students read and understand a variety of materials. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 1)
   b. Students read and recognize literature as an expression of human experience. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 2)
   c. Students apply complex thinking skills when reading, writing, speaking, listening, and viewing. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 7)

2. Lesson Content
   a. Fiction
      i. Charlotte’s Web (E.B. White)

3. Skill Objective(s)
   a. The students will identify the setting of Charlotte’s Web.
b. The students will identify at least three characters from Charlotte’s Web.
c. The students will identify 1-2 adjectives for each character identified from Charlotte’s Web.
d. The students will illustrate the setting and characters identified from Charlotte’s Web.

B. Materials

1. Charlotte’s Web by E.B. White
2. List of activities during reading of book (Appendix D)
3. 12 X 18 white or light construction paper – at least one sheet per student
4. markers, colored pencils, or crayons for each student
5. 1 piece of notebook paper or each student
6. Rubric for the puzzle (Appendix E)
7. Test over Charlotte’s Web (Appendix F)
8. Key for test (Appendix F1)

C. Key Vocabulary

1. Humble – not proud; near the ground
2. Radiant – emitting energy

D. Procedures/Activities

1. Prior to the lesson read Charlotte’s Web to the class. This will take time over several weeks to complete. You may choose to do other activities while you are reading the book. Please see Appendix D for possible ideas for ideas of activities prior to completing this lesson. The lesson time frame is based on the activity itself, not on reading the book.

2. Review with the students setting, character, and sequence of events. When talking about characters introduce key vocabulary to describe Wilbur. Ask for adjectives for other characters in the story.

3. Pass out a piece of notebook paper to each student. Have each student write the setting of the story. It could be the fair or the farm.

4. Tell each student to think of the characters of the story that you have talked about as a class. They will need to pick at least three characters from the story. Have the students write down the names of at least three characters from the book.

5. After each student has written down 3 characters, ask them to think of words that describe each of them. For example, Charlotte is kind, helpful, etc. Each student needs to come up with 1-2 adjectives for each character that is listed on their paper.

6. Give each student a piece of construction paper. Ask them to illustrate a picture of the setting where the story took place. The students will also need to draw at least 3 characters in their setting to complete their picture. Tell the student to come up with 1-2 adjectives for each character. Have the students write the adjectives that describe each character somewhere on the character itself when they draw them in the setting.

7. The students will take their picture and cut into at least 18 pieces to create a puzzle. You will need to show students how this is done. The students can be evaluated on the puzzle, the multiple choice test or both.

E. Assessment/Evaluation

1. The students will be evaluated by the completed puzzle. There is a rubric provided (Appendix E).
2. The Students will be evaluated by a multiple choice test (Appendix F). A Key is provided (Appendix F1).
Lesson Four: A Kind Heart Soars (60-75 minutes)

A. Daily Objectives
   1. Concept Objective(s)
      a. Students read and understand a variety of materials. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 1)
      b. Students apply complex thinking skills when reading, writing, speaking, listening, and viewing. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 7)
   2. Lesson Content
      a. Fiction
         i. The Magic Paintbrush (a Chinese folktale)
   3. Skill Objective(s)
      a. The students will create a representation of one type of magic paintbrush.
      b. The student will write 2 or more sentences to describe what the magic paintbrush will create and why.

B. Materials
   1. Liang and the Magic Paintbrush, by Demi
   2. 12 X 18 white construction paper – 1 sheet per student
   3. feathers
   4. toilet paper rolls
   5. different kinds of ribbon, string
   6. scissors for each student
   7. glue for each student
   8. different kinds of buttons or beads
   9. markers, crayons
   10. foam shapes or other miscellaneous arts and crafts
   11. 3-5 containers for sand
   12. 3 plastic containers for pudding
   13. 3 containers for clay or play dough
   14. 3 boxes of different kinds/colors of pudding
   15. 3-5 bags of different color sand
   16. 3-5 pieces of clay or play dough
   17. 15 popsicle sticks
   18. 2-4 cans of shaving cream
   19. Rubric for magic paint brush (Appendix G)

C. Key Vocabulary
   1. greedy – excessive desire for wealth
   2. emperor – ruler of an empire
   3. beggar – someone who begs for food, clothes, etc.
   4. medium – the material an artist works with

D. Procedures/Activities
   1. Note: This lesson can be broken up into 2 different lessons based on time constraints. You can do 2-7 at one time and 8-13 at a later time.
   2. Prior to the lesson, please prepare the pudding as indicated on the boxes. You will also need to collect miscellaneous arts and crafts for the students to use. The amount and items listed under materials are ideas but you may allow students to work with other items than are listed. It is important to give different types of items to include different texture and shapes.
   3. Read the book Liang and the Magic Paintbrush.
   4. As a class, recreate the story in sequence.
   5. Review and define the key vocabulary words from the story.
6. Explain to the students that they will be working with different mediums to create letters or pictures.
7. Divide the class into 2 groups. One group will sit at their desk and create a picture using shaving cream. Please be aware that a little goes a long way. It may smell up your room.
8. Put the containers of pudding, sand, and clay around the room in stations. The other group will rotate through all three mediums as the rest of the class works with the shaving cream. You can substitute some items. It is important to give different consistencies for the students. You will need to switch the groups so the group working with shaving cream may rotate through the other stations. The students who rotated through the stations of pudding, sand, and clay can now go back to their desk and work with shaving cream.
9. Once all students have experimented with each type of medium, have all students return to their seats. The shaving cream may take a little effort to get off the desk but it makes them very clean.
10. Put all arts and crafts supplies for making the magic paintbrush in a central location so students can go up when needed to get items.
11. Pass out a piece of 12 X 18 construction paper to each student. Tell the students they will now have an opportunity to make their own magic paintbrush.
12. Each student will need to come to the arts and crafts area and pick up items to use. It is at teacher discretion the amount of materials that each student may choose based on the number of students and the amount of supplies.
13. After creating the magic paintbrush, each student needs to write at least 2 sentences next to the paintbrush about what they will create with the brush and why.
14. Have the students read their sentences and show their magic paintbrush to the class. (time permitting)

E. Assessment/Evaluation
1. The students will be evaluated on the paintbrush and sentences using a rubric (Appendix G).

Lesson Five: That Can’t be True (45-60 minutes)

Daily Objectives

1. Concept Objective(s)
   a. Students read and understand a variety of materials. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 1)
   b. Students read and recognize literature as a expression of human experience. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 2)

2. Lesson Content
   a. Fiction: Tall Tales
      i. Johnny Appleseed

3. Skill Objective(s)
   a. The students will identify 3 exaggerations from “Johnny Appleseed”.
   b. The students will identify 3 real aspects from “Johnny Appleseed”.

B. Materials
1. Johnny Appleseed by Steven Kellogg
2. 1 sheet of red apples per student (Appendix H)
3. 1 sheet of blue apples per student (Appendix H)
4. 1 Johnny Appleseed worksheet per student (Appendix I)
5. scissors for each student
6. glue stick for each student
7. 2 different colored markers
8. Rubric for Tall Tale sheet (Appendix R)
9. Optional: Appendix J-Q for other tall tales

C. Key Vocabulary
1. exaggeration – to go beyond the truth

D. Procedures/Activities
1. Prior to the lesson, copy Appendix H on two different colors of paper. One should be a real color apples could be and another should be one that would be an exaggeration.
2. Read Johnny Appleseed by Steven Kellogg.
3. As a class retell the story in sequence.
4. Take 1 colored marker to make a list of things that were real in the story.
5. Introduce and discuss the vocabulary word exaggeration.
6. Take the other colored marker and make a list of things in the story that are exaggerations.
7. Pass out Johnny Appleseed Worksheet, (Appendix I) and both apple pages(Appendix H)
8. Tell the students they are going to help tell the story of Johnny Appleseed by creating an apple tree.
9. The students will write an exaggeration on each of the 3 blue apples (not possible) and a truth on each of the red apples (possible).
10. The student will glue the apples on their tree. The students will need to glue the truthful parts on the tree because they it could “grow” and the apples that are exaggerations should not “grow” on the tree. They will need to label the tree with the title of Johnny Appleseed.
11. Optional: You can have the students complete the apples and make a big tree as a bulletin board to showcase the students work in the hallway.
12. The other tall tales can be done the same way. You may use hammers for John Henry to write the truths and exaggerations (Appendix J). You can have students complete the sheet and place the hammers around the object you might hammer in and exaggeration around the object you would not (Appendix K). You can use lassos for Pecos Bill (Appendix L). The students can rope a cow or the moon (Appendix M). You may use an ax for Paul Bunyan to cut down trees or buildings (Appendix N and O). You may use a train for Casey Jones to ride on the tracks or off (Appendix P and Q).

E. Assessment/Evaluation
1. The students will be evaluated by a rubric to determine if the skill objectives have been met. (Appendix R).

Lesson Six: Could you repeat that? (25 per saying/phrase)

A. Daily Objectives
1. Concept Objective(s)
   a. Students read and understand a variety of materials. (Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 1)
   b. Students read and recognize literature as a expression of human experience.(Colorado Model Content Standard, for Language Arts Standard 2)
2. Lesson Content
   a. Sayings and Phrases
      i. Cold Feet
3. Skill Objective(s)
   a. The students will define “Cold feet”
   b. The student will write an example of “Cold feet” from prior experience.

B. Materials
2. Cold feet saying and phrase sheet (Appendix S)

C. Key Vocabulary
1. literal – true in the usual sense of the words

D. Procedures/Activities
1. Prior to the lesson, take Appendix S and turn the copy over. You will need to trace the outline so that you have a two sided sheet. Cut the example portion from page 2 of Appendix S before it is sent down to be copied for the students.
2. Ask students if they know what Cold Feet means. (Take all answers that are given) Talk with students about what literal means and ask if they think cold feet means actually having cold feet.
3. Read the example for “Cold feet” from What Your Second Grader Needs to Know.
4. As a class define what Cold Feet actually means.
5. Ask the students for examples of when they have had cold feet. If they can not come up with any examples, prompt them for things like taking tests, doing new things, meeting new people, coming to school for the first time, etc.
6. Pass out the saying and phrase sheet. (Appendix S) Discuss with the students that all sayings and phrases will have a picture and usually a color for each. Cold feet is printed on light blue paper with a foot.
7. Students will need to write the definition on one side. On the other side, the students will need to write an example of when they had cold feet.
8. Students may share their example with the class if time permits.
9. All sayings and phrases can be done the same way. See the list for color and picture (Appendix T). It has been my experience that creating the saying and phrases is best done by the cut and paste method. If you find clip art that works, print the picture and trace on the second side. Use word to make an example side and the side with “Cold feet means __” so you can just paste it inside the picture.
10. Once all are done, you can cut them out and create a mobile for them.
11. Students will be evaluated by a checklist to see if they have a definition and example for “Cold feet”. You can use the check list for all of the sayings and phrases covered in second grade.
12. Optional: You can have each student create a mobile with the saying and phrases. Each student can be evaluated on the mobile.

E. Assessment/Evaluation
1. The students will be evaluated by a checklist to determine if the skills objectives have been met. (Appendix U)
2. The students can be evaluated by the mobile using a rubric. (Appendix V)

VI. CULMINATING ACTIVITY (20 minutes)

A. The students will complete a web layout about what they have learned about literature. It covers all of the items in this unit (Appendix W). The key is provided (Appendix W1). If your class does all the poems, sayings and phrases, tall tales and stories, you can adjust the web for each area covered. A blank layout is provided for students to complete (Appendix X). There is also an example of adaptations for doing all of the items covered for tall tales (Appendix Y). You may also want your students to form groups and reenact one of the aspects of literature that was covered in this unit. They could create a skit and have other students guess the story, tall tale, poem or saying.

Smart

My dad gave me one dollar bill
'Cause I'm his smartest son,
And I swapped it for two shiny quarters
'Cause two is more than one!

And then I took the quarters
And traded them to Lou
For three dimes—I guess he don't know
That three is more than two!

Just then, along came Old blind Bates
And just 'cause he can't see
He gave me four nickels for my three dimes,
And four is more than three!

And I took the nickels to Hiram Coombs
Down at the seed-feed store,
And the fool gave me five pennies for them,
And five is more than four!

And then I went and showed my dad,
And he got red in the cheeks
And closed his eyes and shook his head -
Too proud of me to speak!
